The Center for Youth & Family Solutions is Making Prom Possible With Operation Royalty

February 1, 2013

MACOMB, Ill- Every high school student deserves to have the perfect prom night. To help make this possible for all teens in McDonough County, The Center for Youth & Family Solutions is accepting donations of new or gently used Prom, cocktail or formal dresses as well as shoes and accessories. All of these items will be free to high school students who otherwise may not be able to attend prom.

All items donated should be clean and free of holes or damage. Donations are tax deductible and will not be returned. Please drop off any items to the Macomb office located at 123 South McArthur Street Macomb, Ill. Monetary donations will be accepted to support the purchase of corsages, dry cleaning, or other fees associated with prom.

“Everyone deserves to be a princess at their prom and without the support of our wonderful community, this may not be possible” said Carrie Depoy, the Youth, Family and Community Outreach Supervisor of the CYFS Macomb office.

The Center for Youth & Family Solutions is a not-for-profit social service agency providing strength-based, family-centered social services to youth and families in need throughout Central Illinois. These services include foster care services, child abuse prevention, crisis response for runaways and their families, adoption services, intervention and education with at-risk youth, counseling services for individuals and families, mental health crisis response and community advocacy programs. CYFS hosts eleven offices across the state of Illinois, and annually partners with over 20,000 individuals and collaborates on over 7,000 cases in 37 counties.
